WHIG ADVOCATE

CANTON. MISS.

SATURDAY::::::: :::: GCTOBER 5, 1839.

"The Union of the Whigs, for the sake of the Union." FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY, of Ky. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN TYLER, of Va. Subject to the decision of a National Convent

FOR UNITED STATES SENATE. S. S. PRENTISS. FOR GOVERNOR, EDWARD TURNER FOR CONGRESS, ADAM L. BINGAMAN, REUBEN DAVIS. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, DUDLEY S. JENNINGS. FOR STATE TREASURER, GIDEON FITZ. FOR AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, JOHN CRUSOE.

The Convention.

Whigs of the Canton precinct, Delegates are to be chosen for the County Convention to-day. Will you do your duty?

We extract the following information from cannot, and will not, decline this courteous inthe Southern Sun, of Sept. 29th, which settles vitat at once the question of Judge Turner's opinion Judge Turner, which we publish to-day, and keys. request all our readers to give it an attentive perusal.

Judge Turner-U. S. Bank. THE LOCOFOCO MISREPRESENTATION CORRECTED. All's Right-" Go-ahead !"

friends throughout the State, that Hon. ED- the chair this coming winter. WARD TURNER is No T opposed to a United States Bank—that he believes such an Institution CONSTITUTIONAL, and, at the present crisis, EXPEDIENT also. We state apon Judge Turner's own authority, contained in a letter addressed to the editor of the Sun, for the office of Governor, to argue the question. He thinks it more proper to leave the disputation to those gentlemen who are canvassing for place. a seat in Congress, and who, when elected,

The report of Judge Turner's opposition to a U. S. Bank, no doubt originated from the fact, that some twelve or fifteen years ago, he was opposed to the introduction of a branch of the U. S. Bank in Mississippi. That opposition, however, did not arise from any hostility to the Bank—but, from the fact that at that early period, the State needed no additional banking facilities-that we had good banks of our own, which furnished a sound circulating medium, and which the Legislature might tax Sheriff of this county. introduced, it would not be taxable. These were the reasons, and the policy which influen-ced Judge Turner, and they were doubtless very good and wholesome at the time, and un-and abuses practised under the diffusive banking system, fastened upon the people by the "experiments" of the locofoco party. He will, if elected, endeavor to reform the whole system—wind up the "rotten" banks—and compel the sound ones to perform their duner. This is right, in our opinion. Although

The ex-President of Texas, and Hero of

o listen to. He reviewed his policy-and the rights of Texas by Mexico, previous to the i'eclaration of war, the future prospects of that republic, the fertility of its soil and salubrity of its climate. The address was short, owing to his bealth, which is very bad, and our only regret at the conclusion of his speech, was, that

The proceedings of the day were handed too late for this weeks paper; we will publish them next week.

This organ of Col. Johnson is growing loco foco ticket at the next elect wanes under those of Polk and King.

The Col.'s organ, in one of the lest non Citizens Bank.

The Stockholders of this institution will se

nett, who by agreement, was to have held the Convention which framed the Constitut fully exposed. We will try and lay it before our readers next week.

Nashville Committee. The Committee appointed by the Whigs of reached Louisville on the 21st ult., and depart- bank !!! Three to one in its favor !! ed on the next day for Ashland. Mr. Clay charge of his being opposed to a National nessee, Alabama and Mississippi, abstracted to Bank, which the leco foco democrats have so the amount of $25,000. The Cashier has offerindustriously circulated, had not been contro- ed a reward of $5,000, and the Corporation verted. We have in addition to the intelli- $2,000 for the apprehension of the villian. gence contained in the Sun the Circular of The Robbery was committed by means of false Doctor Drake. Pathological Anatomy in the Louisville Medical We have the pleasure of stating to our whig Institute. He will enter upon the duties of

The Faculty in this school, now, is equal to John Crusoe.

This gentleman who is running on the Whig dated 25th ult. Judge Turner, however, con-ceives that it is not the duty of one, canvassing ticket for Auditor of Public Accounts, passed Monday and Tuesday last, of this week in this

This was the first time we have had the may probably have a vote in determining the pleasure of seeing Mr. Crusoe, and we feel The report of Judge Turner's opposition to gratified that our ticket bears his name, as he

> We are requested to state that SAMUEL D. Livingston, declines running as a candidate for

We say then, confident'y, Judge Turner is right on the controlling succion of the currency—being, as he is in favor of a National Bank—opposed to the Sub-Treasury, and the The Democratic letter-writers and editors have misrepresented the whig candidate for Governor. This has been artfully and industrially done, with the view of driving from him his whig supporters. The democrats knew State was carried to a point, but a few years that the whig party could not consistently, and therefore would not, support any man for Governor, who atraved himself against a well regulated National Bank; and perceiving, from the signs of the times, that their locofoco, sub-treasury, hard-money candidate was in a ted Constitution—if, inddoed, such was a vioted Constitution-if, inddoed, such was a violation of that instrument. I have uniformly observed a remarkable disposition ou the part of the heterogenous mass of politicians who compose the present party ampinds to disregard and repudiate precedents San Jacinto passed through this place on Tues- the same time, they are arminst them, while, at san Jacinto passed through this place on Tuesday last on his return home. While here he was greeted by many of his warm personal friends, who testified their regard by the tender of a public dinner, which was cordially accepted.

After the dinner and reading of the toast complementary to Gen. Houston, the company upon request proceeded to the Court House, where the Hero of San Jacinto replied to the compliment in one of the finest and most elocompliment in one of the finest and the many and the constitutional powers.

But in the messerts and cannism the many and the data that the many and the constitution of the constitution and the many and the outward wall;" we are fearful the cry will not was made to it until its third randing or final be "they come," but they "want come," passage. And this opposition was according y a majority of nineteen votes, which, cor dering the fact that there were but sixty for have been held pursuant to law, during the members in the House at that time, was a large present and succeeding week; but the ends of justice has again been defeated. Judge Bendividuals who were, also, members of the Missonri question—that in 1821, he voted for dividuals who were, also, members of the Missonri question—that in 1821, he voted for dividuals who were, also, members of the north on the presidential character and dividuals who were, also, members of the north on the presidential character and succeeding the right of suffrage to free negroes, next, who by agreement, was to have held the who afterwards became one of the bank party, Washington's Administration, Nashville to invite Mr. Clay to visit that city, the votes would stand 12 for and 4 against the John Adams't ank under our present Constitution-such is Monroe's it affor a long, able, and elaborate discussion Jackson's of a National Bank. We are glad that "all the Branch of the Bank of Tennessee, at right," for we had determined to strike Judge Turner from the list of Whig candidates, if the Turner from the list of Whig candidates, if the upon the constitutional question. And yet, I ment is, the party believe it. I will set the daily meet with individuals of every grade of matter right; and I will refer to such evidence On the subject of our Banking system, it is matter right; and I will refer to such evidence intelligence, from the ignoramus to the best informed, who, when you broach the subject of a National Bank to them and they cannot deny the great utility of such an institution that all the defalantions from the content of the subject of our Banking states and admitted by all the world:—In "dotentended on all hands, that we have extentended on all hands. All see and admitted by all the wisdom, moderation and prethat all the defalantions from the content of the subject of our Banking states.

On the subject of our Banking states and admitted on all hands, that we have extentended on all hands. All see and admitted by all the wisdom, moderation and prethat all the defalantions from the content. both to the government and the people, shelter themselves behind the hackneyed and formidable objection that "it is unconstitution-midable objection that "i mation and adoption.

which our country can boast—the Storys, the Kents, the Gastons and the Marshalls, whose minds were competent to investigate all the the honest democrats, when they have looked to wind up. We have a Board of the country are open and are competent to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

This deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

This deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

This deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

It is a statement is not taken to the deltar.

The partment, and signed by Levi Woodbury. Let deltar to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

The partment is not taken to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

The partment is not taken to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

The partment is not taken to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

The partment is not taken to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar.

The partment is not taken to the deltar.

Our courts are open and are competent to the deltar. subjects which are "calculated to try the over these figures recollect the millions that Bank Commissioners, employed for this sales. Starting the opposite opinion, "I am lost in amazement !" At a meeting of the members of "Canton Some people are of opinion I am forcibly reminded of the eloquent culogy in which Mr. Wirt contrasted the mind of Sir following resulutions were uncollected as the contrast of the eloquent culogy following resulutions were uncollected as the contrast of the contras

For the Madison Whig Advocate.

Political Disquisitions.—No. 6.
I promised to notice in this number, the grounds upon which some of the citizens of the court of the trounds upon which some of the citizens of the court of the c subject, with all its connections and dependenties, than was the mind of Sir Robert Boyle?

In the wart of Constitutional power on the part of Congress to charter such an institution; and the question is answered. How then does it happen that they have been conducted to a conclusion, so perfectly.

In the first of these will for the people.

Subject, with all its connections and dependenties, the members of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the wart of Constitutional power on the part of Congress to charter such an institution; and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the first of these will for the people.

In the wart of Constitutional power on the part of Congress to charter such an institution; and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the wart of Constitutional power on the part of Congress to charter such an institution; and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the wart of Congress to charter such an institution; and the United States Bank of this Lodge will went the usual badge of mourning, and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the wart of Congress to charter such an institution; and the United States Bank of this Lodge will went the usual badge of mourning, and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

In the wart of Congress to charter such an institution; and the United States Bank of this Lodge will went the usual badge of mourning, and that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning and the United States Bank of this Lodge will be used the such that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning and the United States Bank of this Lodge will be used to the such that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning and the United States Bank of this Lodge will be used to the such that the furniture of this Lodge be clothed in mourning and the United States Bank of this Lodge w ties to the people in a faithful and efficient manpy my attention. And it does seem to me that, because their judgments are less extricated ceased brother in their afflicting bereavement, the whig party had no agency in producing the distress which pervades the land, and the ruinous multiplication of shin-plaster banks hich has every where occurred—yet it is their duty, as patriots, to aid in remedying the difficulties which surround us.

py my attention. And it does seem to me that, the whigh party had no agency in producing if a Constitutionul question can be settled by precedent and the weight of the highest authorout the influence and raised above the mists of passion: it is because their judgments are less extricated from the influence and raised above the mists of passion: it is because their minds are less extricated by precedent and the their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasements are less extricated by precedent and their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasements are less extricated by precedent and tender to them their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasements are less extricated by precedent and tender to them their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasements are less extricated by from the influence and raised above the mists of passion: it is because their judgments are less extricated by from the influence and raised above the mists are less extricated by precedent and tender to them their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasement and tender to them their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasement and tender to them their sincere condolence.

4. Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to furnish the family of our deceasement and tender to them their sincere condolence.

Let the reader but substitue a constitutional Bank—opposed to the Sub-Treasury, and the exclusive metallic currency dreamed of by Benton—and in favor of Exponence the State Bank which were deemed by particular sections of ions in favor of the power to charter a bank, the country to be unconstitutional, have given the petty jurists and street politicians for the rise to discontent and conventions in some of infidels, and the above extract will express my that the Hon. John M. Maury has consented to the convention did not intend to give to Conto fill the office with credit to himself, and honlam not, in the management of our state at. gress the power to establish a bank. But it or and usefulness to the public, the incumbent does not necessarily follow that, when the should possess a mind naturally clear, discri-Convention denied, (if it be true that they did so) the power to incorporate generally, therefore, they did not intend that Congress should ed with the principles of law, theoretically, and to provide for the future.

As to our great Union Bank; it has been entered to the congress of the second state of t make such a corporation under any such circumstances—for instance, if the exercise of courts of this State; and this qualification can attached to it by the ablest jurists which the country has produced ought to receives from country has produced ought to receives from those who may wish to form an opinion, the highest consideration.

Our existing Federal Government went into operation in the month of April, A. D. 1789 General Washington, who had presided in the Convention which framed the Federal compact, was called by the unanimous suffrages of his made, with, so shortly afterwards assuming the convention, were they who signed both of our bank charters respectively: Washington in 1791, and Madison in 1816. And are there any so hardy as to charge the illustrious soldier and statesman, who presided over the deliberations of that Convention, who presided over the deliberations of that Convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the same opinion, in relative and it is power and patronage.

Washington in 1791, and Madison in 1816, and are there any so hardy as to charge the illustrious soldier and statesman, who presided over the deliberations of that Convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the convention, who must, consequently have been cognized to the convention, who must, consequently have been cognized that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished convention, the statute, and by the advice of a gentleman who look upon him must be at once convinced that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished to file that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished to file that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished to file that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished to file the statute, and by the advice of a gentleman who look upon him must be at once convinced that nature has formed him to occupy a distinguished to file the statute, and by the advice of a gentleman who look upon him must be at once convinced th business prevented our hearing it all, and that was called by the unanimous suffrages of his made, with, so shortly afterwards assuming eminently qualify him for that high station. countrymen first to administer it; and on the and sanctioning the exercise of a power which he must have known was not intended to be 30th of the same month and year he was in. he must have known was not intended to be augurated as the first Chief Magistrate of the granted? Such a charge directly made would United States of North America. Scarcely two years had elapsed, after this period, when a bill to incorporate a United States or Nationeasy as the Col.'s prespect of being ron on the al Bank was, in accordance with the wishes circumstance. It is a foul calumny upon the spotticket at the next election for the and recommendation of the Secretary of the sidency grows darker, and his star Treasury, passed by the Senate and sent to the But it is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney and friends to have the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to have the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to have the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends to the less character of the "Father of his country." It is a sufficent answer to this to say, that the legal adviser of Washington, the Attorney is friends. was made to it until its third reading or final passage. And this opposition was according to the history of the transaction by Chief Ignore to the history of the transaction by Chief Ignore tice Marshall in his biography of Washington, at that time unexpected. It was made by Messra. Madison and Giles of Virginia, and control of the subject. But ought not the Control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

I was born in the State of Virginia, in the weet of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence one out to the subject. But ought not the Control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

Kentucky, among the compatriots of Washington, he says:

August, 1839.

Kentucky, among the compatriots of Washington, in the weath of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence our output to the final form whence our output to the subject. But ought not the Control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

Kentucky, among the compatriots of Washington, in the state of Virginia, in the weath of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence out to the final form whence of the Revolutionary War, and control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

Kentucky, among the compatriots of Washington, he says:

An appeal has been also made by the enemies of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence out to the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence out to the Revolutionary War, and court of the Control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

Kentucky, among the compatriots of Washington, he says:

An appeal has been also made by the enemies of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence of the Revolutionary War, and educated from whence of the Revolutionary War, and the import of its own the court of the Control Court, on the 17th August, 1839.

b. Bell, who by agreement, was to have held the Convention which framed the Convention of the bench, ordered the Sheriff to open Court, whon the sforesid Sheriff, instead of Obeying his Honor, choved a piece of paper at him, saying taken of Obeying his Honor, choved a piece of paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of Obeying his Honor, choved a piece of paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of Obeying his Honor, choved a piece of paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the bench of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the paper at him, saying, "here's my resignation." The Jago is formable of the Jago i owning property to the amount of $250 that,

Jefferson's Such was the origin of the first National Madison's do, exclusive of

When I reflect that all the great jurists of statement is not taken from a Whig document, Our courts are open and are competent to the dellar.

been conducted to a conclusion, so perfectly deeply sympathise with the family of our de-tions; and that they be published in the Madison Whig Advocate.

Canton, Sept. 28, 1839.

For the Madison Whig Advocate.

A VOTER OF MADISON COUNTY.

To the Citizens of the State of Missis-all the Stock now due and unpaid by the share—others, on the ground, chiefly, that the Federal holders in this Bank will be sold, unless arranged by the first Monday in December next.

The first Monday in December next.

The bill passed, however,

HAWKE-EYE.

Cholas, in the year 1792, at the time that distinguished statesman and lawyer was warmly engaged in bringing about that revolution for construction for the constitutional power of the United States, cotton planter, the mechanic, the labourer, which residence of the states and necessaries of time that distinguished statesman and lawyer was warmly engaged in bringing about that revolution for construction for the constitutional power of the United States, cotton planter, the mechanic, the labourer, which residence of the states and necessaries of time that distinguished statesman and lawyer was warmly engaged in bringing about that revolution for the constitutional power in the constitution in the constitution

For the Madison Whig Advocate.

Ma. Entron:—In your last paper I proved, by documentary evidence, that Mr. Van Buren our American ancestors to take up arms a gether and the votes of all the members of the Congress of 1791, who were members of the Saturation has been found and part of the Saturation that the Saturation has been found and Superior Courts of the Saturation that the Saturation the Saturation that the Saturat Convention, will stand thus: In favor of the bank 11.—Against it, only 5. And if we take from the latter the vote of Mr. Madison, who afterwards became one of the bank party. 13,000 the office of Governor. This call has been New let us examine the state of the 220,000 the other of Governor. The last twelve First, if these gestioned were years, and I have at length consented, to place my name before the people.

200,000 years, and the people.

The condition of our statute law, our finances, and our Banking concerns, call loudly for the public on a cloudy against the public of the public of the public of the public on a cloudy against the public of th nomical government, favoring commerce and us we are broad, and opposition of internal improvements to a undersate and true-deny the great utility of such an institution that all the defalcations, from the origin of the dence of our Legislature must be brought to destruction pointed to the chair of Clinical Medicine and at !! And the majority of these individuals, the defalcations amounted to $825,678 28!!!! them. Those remaining, should be compelled Generalized I do sincerily believe, have never read the Let the honest democrats of the country read to pay specie, or wind up their business. Some a had million of Delieve, of those states where the banking bubble has disbursing the Rossman of our course Constitution much less the history of its forthe leaders of the party are condemned. This ed new banks, and restored a sound circulating four hundred and many millions of clearness, the force and the comprehension of have been stolen since January 1838, by Swartthe human intellect."-I say, when I reflect wout, Price, Gratiot and a host of others, Attornies, competent, and possessed of legiti- head of a competent was the competent of t that these "pure intelligences, these links be- amounting to Millions, and then say whether mate power to act in the premises. Let pushes only these links between men and angels," have given it as their they will still support Mr. Van Buren and his opinion that a bank is constitutional, and look sub-Treasury.

TRUTH.

constitutionality of a United States Bank has ments of all Resources of the I. Resolved, That in the death of our late been setticu, in favor of such an institution. depreciated paper. their judgments better able to weigh those arguments than his was? They have not the vanity to believe it. Is the beam of their judge.

our firstle community.

In relation to our State Banks, Judge Turner occupies the right ground. He is in favor of correcting, by all legal means, the corruptions and abuses practised unader the diffusive banking system, fastened upon the people by the wexperiments? of the warrenge of the system and a buses of the system, fastened upon the people by the wexperiments? of the least of Constitutional power on the least But the Governor of Mississippi, as such, has nothing to do with this matter; he having sequences of the services and the Revenue of the such a law—as to its expedience, or its utility, I believe a Bank of the United States properly guarded and limited in its powers, which shall keep every flank in the distancement of eternal journals, and were you will be the control of the co the public revenue, calculated to equalize ex-changes, and to promote a sound circulating. The most formulable objection to the medium.

have nothing to do with this subject. In be- suppose the aub-Treasury in longs to the people and their representatives in and was have your deposites of Salvan Congress, and to the President of the United States, and not to the governor of the State ; officer for payment of his miles, if I and I have allowed myself to say this much on draft on New York, in consequent the construction given to that instrument by that the only Presidents we have had, who were est credit to himself and satisfaction to the reasons which influenced him in the course he pursued with Santa Anna—the invasion of the stantial interest and happiness; but I shall more the lands. Can you attend interest of be grateful for your past favors and confidence.

Columbus, Sept. 30, 1839.

I am of the opinion that the question of the redworf all the public man

I consider, that, as a candidate for Governor, bank to Governord Banking infidels, and the above extract will express my idea of the contrast.

Iam well aware that it has been said, that a proposition was made in the Convention which formed the Constitution to give to Congress the express power to grant charters of incorporation generally, and rejected. And this is relied upon as a circumstance to prove that the convention did not intend to give to Congress the nower to grant had the Hon. John M. Manry has consented to become a candidate for the office of Chancellor is one of the highest, most important and responsible within the gift of the people of Mississippi. In making a selection of an individual to fill it, they should therefore exercise the utmost circumspection. In order to fill the office with credit to himself, and hop-

EDWARD TURNER. Just at such a patient its among bearing should diligently enquire, carefully examine, and frequently ask themselves, can we perceive the index which directs us to the source from whence we are to derive relief from the onerous and unjust tribute which we are now paying to our sister States, of at least one fourth of the labours which constitutes the wealth of our own State, by way of tax, not only for the conveniences and necessaries of modern times has shown. It is not the property of the conveniences and necessaries of modern times has shown.